SD83 Report-Superintendent Peter Jory

Quarter coming to an end for high school

Remembrance Day ceremonies looked different

Student goal setting coming up

Snow removal happening

Pro D days focus on Indigenous learning

Most winter concerts will be different and some delayed until spring

Still no extracurricular activities and some camps cancelled

School is still safe and outbreaks minimal

Inside spacing and stringent protocols are being followed

Concern around emotional fatigue.

QUESTION for Peter-Is there more change coming due to enrollment shortfall.

ANSWER-Drew down staff(vacantpositions) and reallocated funds. Still work in progress.

Trustees' Update from Marty Gibbons
