Welcome –

School Act identifies PAC is to ADVISE. DPACs role is to connect with parents and ADVISE the school district

Serena Caner, Shuswap Food Action

- The goal of the program is to support vulnerable families through providing healthy food to all
- Looking to support a 'hot food program' to all schools
 - Soup/Stew will be pre-prepared at Zest Food Hub
 - School volunteer will pick up thermos' and deliver food to school and return thermos – SC to send poster to school contacts
 - 2-3 volunteers will be needed at each school to serve the meal ($3/meal + subsidized program)
 - School would use own dishes although some bowls may be available through SFA info@shuswapfood.ca

Terra Stephenson, Literacy Alliance of the Shuswap Society LASS

- 1:1 reading program is returning in 2022
- Program needs school volunteers – SC to sent poster to school contacts
- Program requires funds to support literacy game activity. $20/kit. DPAC has offered to purchase kits to ensure all schools receive them. Cost estimate is around $340.
